General

- Baan Thai Zeeland has the right to terminate a treatment immediately if the client demonstrates inappropriate or sexual behaviour.
- Baan Thai Zeeland reserves the right to refuse massage if it is deemed necessary due to safety and health reasons.
- Client treatment details will not be discussed with anyone other than the client.
- The customer understands that massage and other similar body-work treatments are therapeutic in nature and are not a substitute for medical examination or medical care.
- The customer understands and agrees that receiving massage therapy is entirely at its own risk.

Health and liability

- When making an appointment for any of our treatments, please inform us if you have any health problem or are under medication. There may be times when massage is unsuitable due to pre-existing health issues which will be discussed before any massage treatment is provided.
- Essential oils may be used during your treatment – please communicate any allergies or sensitivities to oils or lotions prior to the beginning of your session.
- Wearing jewellery during treatment is not recommended.

Hygiene

- Hygiene is important to us. Customers are advised to take a shower before massage.
